ELECTION TO BE PUT OFF A MONTH

"Wets" Will Withhold Petitions,
Fearing They Might be Thrown
Out on Technicality.

IF CALLED NEXT MONDAY

Election, to be Within Thirty Days,
Would Fall in Two-Year
Period City is "Dry."

It was authentically stated today that the petition asking for the calling of a "wet" and "dry" election would not be filed in time for the county commissioners to take up at the regular February meeting next Monday, but would be allowed to slide over until the March meeting of the board of commissioners.

In the meantime six additional petitions are being circulated in an effort to get more signers. The reason given for not filing the petition in time to be acted on at the February meeting is that the "wets" do not want to take a chance on having the petition thrown out on a technicality and when they file it they want it to be sure and go through.

Under the law the commissioners are compelled to call an election not less than twenty days and more than thirty days after they meet in regular session. If the petition was filed in time for action Monday of next week and the election called for thirty days later it would be illegal, according to the "wets," as the thirty days would place the election before the time the city voted "dry" two years ago. The city voted "dry" on March 4 and under the law became officially "dry" on this date and as the election would have to be held on a date later than this it would be impossible with the thirty-day limit clause in the law.

According to present arrangements the campaign will be put off about one month later. With the filing of the petition in time for the regular March meeting of the commissioners and providing the election is called, which the "wets" say will be done, the election will be held the latter part of March.

The "wet" workers claim to have enough names now to call an election but in order to keep the petitions alive they are being circulated and more names obtained. This is not necessary, according to the workers, but is done to keep up the interest and make the petition good. The change in plans was made

NEW MATRON OF HOME

Mrs. Ella Woodward of Lapel to Succeed Mrs. F. E. Boltz.

Mrs. Ella Woodward of Lapel, Indiana, has been elected matron of the Sailors' and Soldiers' Orphans' Home in northern Rush county to take the place which was made vacant by the death of Mrs. Cornelia Boltz, wife of Captain F. E. Boltz, superintendent of the home. Mrs. Boltz died last Sunday of pneumonia superinduced from injuries she sustained in a runaway north of Carthage. Thanksgiving day, Captain Boltz was also injured in the accident and was afflicted with the same disease. He was thought critically ill when his wife died but is now believed he will recover.

LAST OF SWEENEY SERMONS TONIGHT

Minister Preaching Basic Truth of Christian Faith at Local Church Will Leave.

The last sermon in the series on the basic truths of the Christian faith that Dr. Z. T. Sweeney is preaching at the Main Street Christian church will be delivered tonight. The subject is "Have We a Model For the Salvation of all People?" The high type of preaching that Dr. Sweeney has been doing assures him a large audience tonight. Those who have been following him from night to night will be exceedingly sorry to know that tonight will be his last appearance here at this time. Mr. Sweeney has fulfilled every expectation concerning him and may leave with the satisfaction that all who have heard him have been not only highly pleased but have been richly benefited. The week's effort is bound to bear fruit for many months to come, it is believed.

Mr. Sweeney preached last night on the subject "The Church of God and Who May Belong to It." Reciting an incident in his own career while he was United States minister to Turkey in which the American flag saved the life of himself and his family his tribute to the flag was a classic.

The usual services will be held Sunday, the pastor preaching both morning and evening.

—Miss Martha Hogsett and Master Graham Pugh left this morning for a few days visit with relatives in Newcastle.

80 ACRES ONCE SOLD FOR $30

Old Records Indicate What Real Estate
Now in Heart of Rushville
Was Worth Century Ago.

SEXTON ADDITION HISTORY

Quarter Section Originally Entered
Entered June 20, 1822.—Other Old Relies Prized Highly.

A comparative value of real estate today and almost a century ago here in Rushville may be found in the brief history of what is known now as the Horatio G. Sexton heirs addition to Rushville. It was comprised of eighty acres of land, which was half of a United States land grant of one hundred and sixty acres made June 20, 1822 to Jonathan Garard.

That same eighty acres may now be described in general terms as that part of Rushville lying north of the C. H. & D. railroad and between Perkins and Jackson streets as the eastern and western boundaries. The fact that this tract of land sold at sheriff's sale February 7, 1829, for thirty dollars reveals the strides that have been made in real estate values. There is none who would attempt to place a valuation on the real estate as it is now situated with its improvements.

The original tract was known as the southwest quarter of section 32, township 14, north, range 10, east, containing 160 acres. Jonathan Garard received the land by certificate of entry at the United States land office June 20, 1822. It was recorded as his property May 22, 1826. By warranty deed, on this same date, it was transferred by Jonathan Garard and wife Ann to Charles H. Veeder for the consideration of $400. The transfer was recorded June 19, 1826.

The next two years were evidently ones of financial distress for Charles H. Veeder, because the next record in regard to this tract of land shows that it sold for the small sum of eighty dollars at sheriff's sale. William S. Russell was the sheriff at that time. The sale took place October 26, 1828, at the court house here. The east half of the quarter section went to Jeremiah Wood for fifty dollars, there being no bidder. The west half was sold to Charles H. Test, the plaintiff, he being the highest bidder, for thirty dollars.

The next record on the west half of that quarter section, because that was the eighty acres that ultimately came into the hands of the H. G. Sexton heirs, shows that Charles H. Test and wife transferred it by warranty deed February 7, 1829 to Eve Veeder for the sum of $250.

Whether Eve Veeder and Charles H. Test were related is not set forth in any of the records but it is presumed that they were and that Eve Veeder, whether for sentimental reasons or otherwise, wanted to come into possession of at least a part of the land which Charles H. Veeder had allowed to be sold at public auction.

Eve Veeder held the land for a little over three years and then sold it August 28, 1832 for $600 to Horatio G. Sexton. Thus, it will be seen that Eve Veeder may have had something more than sentimental reasons for acquiring the land, since she realized a profit of $350 on the exchange.

The history of this piece of land further indicates that deals in real estates in Rushville were not without profit even ninety years ago. When Charles H. Test picked up that west half of the quarter section at sheriff's sale for thirty dollars

N. W. SPENCER IS NEW PRESIDENT

Publisher of Greenfield Reporter
Heads Republican Editorial Association For 1915.

NEW OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Committee Will Meet With One From Democratic Body to Discuss
State Organization.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 29.—The Republican editors at their annual business session here today elected the following officers for the coming year:

President, Newton W. Spencer, of Greenfield; vice-president, George B. Lindsay, of Marion; secretary, J. A. Kuntz, of Kokomo and treasurer, Harry J. Martinsville.

A committee was appointed to meet with a similar committee representing the Indiana Democratic editors to act concerning a state editorial association.

Filled with optimism over political situation, confident of victory in 1916, Republican editors of Indiana and many party workers gathered at the Hotel Severin last night for the annual Editorial Association banquet. More than 300 men and women were aroused to a high pitch of enthusiasm by George W. Hinman, president of Marietta (O.) College, speaker of the evening, whose subject was "Representative Government."

Col. George B. Lockwood of Muncie, president of the Editorial Association, was toastmaster. He and Chairman Will Hays of the state committee spoke briefly preceding Mr. Hinman.

Col. Lockwood introduced Mr. Hinman, who was accorded an old-fashioned Hoosier welcome. The speaker dealt in a forceful manner with present-day problems, taking strong issue with President Wilson and other Democratic leaders.

He condemned the advocates of "direct democracy" and declared that the representative form of government has stood the test of time, and cannot be improved upon. Many of the reforms clamored for at the present time, he declared, were known to be fallacious in the days when the constitution was framed, and therefore were discarded by the makers of that instrument. He asserted, however, that the cry of the fanatic should not be passed by without careful thought. There is a conflict, he said, "and we are summoned to go forth and do battle for that government which has proved itself, by experience, to be the safest, strongest and fairest device of man to guarantee the rule of the people, for the people, in enduring form."

"We read that everything is different today," continued Mr. Hinman. "Granted, everything but the main thing—man. Man, the instrument of the body politic, with his passion, impulse, strength, weakness, virtue, vice, evolves slowly and imperceptibly. He has developed in general since 1787, when our constitution was adopted, but does he live up to the standard set for him by those who demand a new political heaven and earth to fit this new political nature?"

This is the point, Mr. Hinman declared, that direct democracy advocates and "radical reconstructionists" like President Wilson have overlooked, and the whole point on which the conflict hinges. "We still deal with men, not superman," he explained.

Mr. Hinman referred to the minimum wage, maximum price, the suggestion to confiscate at death all es-

Committee Sends Investigation Bill
Back to the House

(By United Press.)
Washington, Jan. 29.—The house immigration committee today voted to reject the president's veto of the immigration bill and decided to attempt to have the house pass the bill over the veto, limiting debate to six hours. Committeemen Sabath, Goldfogle and a score voted to sustain the veto.

JESSIE CLEVINGER GRANTED DIVORCE

Harry Clevinger Withdraws Cross-Complaint and Refuses to Introduce Evidence.

ANOTHER SUIT DISMISSED

Judge Sparks granted Mrs. Jessie Clevenger divorce this morning and gave her the custody of their child Dorothy. Before the trial started the defendant withdrew his cross-complaint and after the evidence had been submitted by the plaintiff, refused to introduce any testimony and Judge Sparks granted the divorce.

Mrs. Clevenger alleged cruel and inhuman treatment and testified along this line. She was also given $10 for attorney fees and the decree was to be entered upon payment of the costs.

The suit of Clement B. George against James A. Hamilton, et al., sent to this county in 1912 on a change of venue from Fayette county, was dismissed today and the costs paid by the plaintiff. The suit was to foreclose a mortgage and asking for a receiver.

GERMANS HURL SHELLS FROM AIR

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS

(By United Press.)
Berlin, Jan. 29.—For the second time within a week a whole fleet of German aeroplanes has succeeded in passing the allies lines near Nieuport and has shelled the coast town of Dunkirk where the British headquarters of General French are supposed to be located.

The war office made this official announcement this afternoon. Guided by two aviators who took part in last Friday's raid, "the German aerial squadron passed over the trenches of the allies near Nieuport and abundantly shelled the British provision depots at Dunkirk."

WILL NOT AMEND 3-MILE ROAD LAW

House Kills Bill to Provide No Road Shall be Built Without Election is First Held.

FREE LUNCH COMMENDABLE

Republican Senators Call Democr-ic Economy Hypocritical and Cite the Proof.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 29.—The house today refused to amend the three-mile road law to provide the roads can not be built by petition. By a vote of 42 to 48 the bill of Representative Foster to provide that no road shall be built without being approved at an election was killed, in spite of Foster's speech against "taxation by petition."

The Indiana house today decided that the saloon free lunch was a commendable institution and should be continued. The committee reported recommending that consideration of the bill fathered by Edwin Davis to abolish free lunches for sanitary reasons be indefinitely postponed and his report was adopted by vive voce vote.

Republican senators called Democratic economy hypocritical when the bill of Senator Thornton, Democrat, reducing the salary of Prosecutor Rucker, Republican of Marion county, to $5,000 with an allowance of $7,500 out of which he would pay 25 deputies was advanced to consideration.

Senator Robinson and Senator White declared it didn't look well for those who raised the salaries in Marion county two years ago when Democrats were in office to reduce them after the Republicans captured the offices.

Two years ago the salary of the Marion county recorder was raised from $13,000 to $18,000 a year.

The Thornton bill also provides all fees collected by Rucker shall go to the county. They have been going to the prosecutor and have raised his total to $25 a year.

Though the committee unanimously recommended death for the Coons bill abolishing the office of highway superintendent a vote of the house gave the bill reprieve.

The house killed the Edwin Davis bill giving members of the county council five dollar fees.

Bills introduced in the senate were: Clarke, to abolish the public roller towel; Clarke, to raise the age of consent from sixteen to eighteen years; Ballou, making a close-

When the Manufacturers Beat the Bushes

In hunting they frequently send natives into the bushes to drive the game into the open.

This suggests an advertising parallel.

When the manufacturer advertises his product in this newspaper he is "beating the bushes."

He is creating customers who want his goods.

They are ready to buy.

Wise dealers back up the newspaper advertising by showing the goods and getting the benefit of the extra business.

And customers that are attracted by the merchant's advertising are likely to remain as permanent patrons of the store.

THOUGHT DEMOCRATS HAD SET INFERNAL MACHINE FOR HIM

Charles A. Frazee, Deputy Treasurer, Discovered Electricity First in Adding Machine.

IT IS ALL OVER COURT HOUSE

The court house is full of electricity, but the fact was not discovered until yesterday, although it had been a source of worry to Charles A. Frazee, deputy county treasurer, ever since he has been in office. He was the only county official that noticed the electricity and now that it has been found in all the rooms of the court house the county officials are having no end of fun getting "shot in the arm."

For the first few days after Mr.

Frazee had taken his office he noticed peculiar little sensations whenever he would attempt to get up from one of the leather bottom chairs. He paid no attention to it but the other day when he went to the adding machine and touched it sparks flew from the ends of his fingers. This was enough for Charles. He was certain the Democrats had set an infernal machine for him.

Yesterday the electricity was more noticeable than ever. Mr. Frazee called in Charles Bales, deputy auditor, to show him the electricity. It acted on Mr. Bales the same way. They would first sit down in one of the leather bottom chairs and then, on arising, would touch some object of steel and everytime there would be a spark or a cracking noise of the spark jumping

LAKE COUNTY IS NOT SLIGHTED

What it Lacks in Votes it Makes up in Prolific and Militant Delegation to Legislature

NEW MEASURE EVERY DAY

Are Now Working on Reapportionment so That They Can Have More Representatives

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Jan. 29.—Firmly insisting that Lake county is entitled to more complete representation in the assembly, but unable until this year to get it, that county has partially solved the problem by sending one of the most prolific and militant delegations to the capitol. Although Lake claims third or fourth place in the list of counties, it has only two representatives and one Senator, and one of the former owes part time to Newton county. Better times are coming following the reapportionment.

But Lake county is not suffering except in votes. Every day some new Lake county measure is introduced and more are brewing. The Gary bill making that city second instead of fourth class, which has passed the senate and is in the house has made more progress so far than the others.

"Lake again!" and then a sigh. That's the way the other members get when Van Horne or Kinder rise in their seats. They always listen though, for the members from there have something interesting to say. The cartoonists have picked out these two men as "easy marks" largely because anyone would recognize them from a mass of long black hair and a firm jaw.

Senator Kinder intends soon to put in a bill allowing cities and towns to co-operate through their councils or trustees to form park districts. The councils and trustees would form park boards with powers similar to those given second class cities. The bill will be of state wide application and interest, but is designed more particularly to meet a situation at Gary. Gary wishes to combine with Miller, Hobart and Chesterton, three towns to establish a park at Miller.

and sold it to Eve Veeder within 3 months at a profit of $220.

Further records of this land show the testimony of Harmony Laughlin known in the early days of Rushville as the town wit and one who often "broke into" the court record, was in effect that Eve was not married when she sold the eighty acres to Horation G. Sexton and that Charles H. Veeder was unmarried when the same eighty acres he owned was sold at public auction.

In the deed given when the quarter section was disposed of is a recital of the facts regarding the sheriff's sale, which recalls some history and which reveals that no newspaper was published in Rushville at the time. The execution on the judgment was as follows:

Execution issued on the above judgment on July 1, 1828, and the sheriff makes the following return thereon, to-wit:

"By virtue of this execution, on the first day of July, 1828, there being no personal property whereon to levy, I seized the southwest quarter of section 32, township 14, north, range 10, in the county of Rush, aforesaid, and gave legal notice in the Fayette Observer, a paper printed at Connersville, Fayette county, Indiana, and also in three of the most public places in the township of Rushville, county of Rush, aforesaid, that I would sell the land aforesaid at public auction at the court house, in Rushville, on the 26th day of July, 1828, and according to the notice so given, aforesaid, I proceeded to offer the rents and profits of the land aforesaid, and there being no bidder, I then offered the east half of said quarter, and sold the same to Jeremiah Wood for $50, and the fee simple of the west half of said quarter, section aforesaid, was then and there sold to Charles H. Test, the plaintiff, he being the highest bidder, for the sum of $30, thirty of which amount, aforesaid, was applied to payment of fee bills in my hands.

Mrs. Ora Morgan has a number of relics which she prizes highly. Among them are two books, one of which is an English reader printed in 1817. Another is an army book published for the information of officers in administrative positions. It was issued in 1864. Mrs. Morgan has no knowledge of how she came in possession of them, except that the army book was given to her by some one to play with when she was a child.

Mrs. Morgan has also saved one stocking and a pair of wrist bands worn by her grandmother, Margaret Moore, who died March 10, 1893, at the age of seventy-eight years, six months and nine days. She was known in Rushville as "Aunt Peggy" Moore. Mrs. Morgan also has a letter which was written May 22, 1852 from Ashley postoffice, Coleco, Illinois by A. S. Boyd to B. D. Moore, her grandfather.

WHEAT SOARS TO $1.42 PER BUSHEL

Even at That Figure Little is Offered

For Sale and Corn Holds Steady at 68.

FARMERS SEE $2.00 WHEAT

Not content with the $1.40 mark, wheat has soared gracefully to $1.42 here. But even at that figure little was offered for sale. Farmers who have wheat seem to be holding on to it for the $1.50 price, which has been held up to them as a sort of ideal. Corn remained at 68 cents here today.

Local farmers and people following the wheat situation have got so used to the big advances being made by that "golden grain" that the same ones who gasped at the $1.10 market last summer following the outbreak of the war, gave only a passing interest to the new price of $1.42.

Read This Letter:

"Several years ago I called on Lane & Evans to buy a pump and they almost forced me to buy one of your Fig. 28 Red Jacket Double-Acting Force Pumps and fifty feet of hose when I only intended to buy a cheap set length pump. Mr. Lane put up such strong argument on "fire protection" that I followed his advice and bought the Fig. 28, little thinking that it would be of any service to me in that respect.

Shortly after the pump was installed, my barn caught fire and had it not been for this pump and hose and the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Barnett, my barn, house and all buildings on the place would have been destroyed."

After one dance and the grand march, the masks were removed. Mrs. James Harmon had what was conceded to be the most unique mask of the party. She wore a dress made completely of copies of The Daily Republican folded so that only the headline across the top of the first page, showed in the pleats. Dr. Charles S. Green dressed as a girl. AFTER MANY MEDICINES FAILED

Mr. Singletary Says Vinol Ended His Suffering from an Awful Cough and Threatened Lung Trouble.

Sumter, S. C. — "I am an oculist and for several years I suffered with an awful cough and lung trouble, so that at times I was scarcely able to go about on account of my condition. I had tried almost every medicine recommended for such troubles, without help, and finally a friend advised me to try Vinol. Before I had taken one-half bottle I could see an improvement. I have now taken six bottles and my cough is not only gone but my general health is lots better."—J. W. SINGLETARY, Sumter, S. C.

It is the combined action of the medicinal elements found in cod livers together with the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron, that makes Vinol so efficient for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis, at the same time building up the weakened, run-down system.

We ask everyone in this vicinity who is troubled with a chronic cough, cold or bronchitis to try a bottle of Vinol, with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not benefit.

A Contributing Cause.

How many people in this community are living on their own money?

If the question was put to each person individually he unquestionably would answer that he is living on his own funds. And he doubtless would be entirely sincere in his statement.

But are we really living on our own money?

Let's dig down under the surface and see what we find.

For the sake of argument we will assume that you are running an account with the grocer, and the butcher, and possibly other merchants.

You pay, of course, but perhaps you make settlement only every sixty or ninety days. Some even pay their bills only twice a year.

Now was it your money that paid the wholesaler for the goods you are using and for which you have not paid, or was it the merchant's?

We contend that fully one-half the people are living from day to day on other people's money, and by doing so they are themselves directly contributing to the present high cost of living.

Now control your rising anger for a moment, and we will humbly endeavor to show you why you are keeping prices up.

The average mercantile stock costs several thousands of dollars, and it must be paid for in cash or the merchant must obtain a line of credit from the wholesaler. And when he buys his goods on credit he pays a higher price for them.

In turn you buy your goods from the merchant on credit, and he in self-defense must add still an additional "safety" profit. In other words, he must charge more than a cash price in order to protect himself from the certainty of loss consequent upon slow collections, bad debts and other annoyances.

Thus two "safety" profits are added to the original selling prices of the article.

Do you see how it works—how the price is boosted?

If every customer paid spot cash for his goods the merchant in turn could do the same with the wholesaler, thereby securing from the latter a discount for cash of possibly 7½ to 10 per cent.

And then the merchant himself would not be required to add the "safety profit" to his goods, which would mean another substantial reduction in the price of the article, and all because of the simple expedience of handing the cash over the counter.

Now doesn't it look as though this practice of living on other people's money is costing us considerably more than we are justified in paying for such a doubtful privilege?

It might require some slight inconvenience and a little temporary retrenchment in order to change over to a cash system, but if a merchant made you a flat offer of a fifteen or twenty per cent. discount for cash you would jump at the opportunity.

Doesn't it appear to be to the advantage of everybody in this community to wipe out the baneful credit system and buy and sell for cash?

It certainly looks that way to us. How does it appear to you?

Health--How to Preserve It Disease--How to Prevent It

Prepared for the United Press by Dr. J. N. Hurty
State Health Commissioner

(Dr. Hurty will answer questions on prevention of disease, hygiene and sanitation. Questions requiring a personal answer cannot be considered. To avoid delay, address all questions direct to the UNITED PRESS ASSOCIATIONS, 36½ West Washington St., Indianapolis. Questions may be sent to THE DAILY REPUBLICAN if preferred.)

Johnny Cake writes—"Is corn bread healthful?"
Reply—Yes corn bread is one of the most healthful foods ever discovered.

A. B. C. writes—"Please suggest a remedy for diarrhea."

Reply—I do not care to suggest a remedy for diarrhea. This is because I do not know the cause in your instance, and this makes a great deal of difference. If it is chronic diarrhea you probably never will be cured, but the condition may be relieved. If it is acute diarrhea a dose of castor might be taken and then cure will result through nature's processes.

Anxious mother writes—"Please suggest some good lunches that I could put up with little expense to send with my children to school."

Reply—Good bread and butter must make the basis of all lunches. The bread must be well baked. Soggy bread is an abomination, causing dyspepsia and ill health. Always put butter on the bread for it is a food which naturally goes with bread and which is needed by the growing child. In all lunches, include fruit. An apple, an orange, one or two bananas, figs or any fruit. Also include a little pot of jam or jelly.

Beware of soggy pie. Soggy pie crust falls into the stomach in a lump and can not be easily digested. Fresh, flaky pie crust with fruit between is healthful, but soggy pie crust is terrible. Occasionally put in a hard boiled egg with a little salt for the same. Occasionally include a small piece of meat of any kind properly cooked. Don't fry or cook your meat until it is like leather. "Soft-cook" them. By this is meant they must be cooked through but must not be dry and hard. A good ingredient for lunches is well-cooked rice. Fill a jelly glass with well-cooked rice slightly sugared. Include a bottle of milk occasionally or if the child likes milk give it a bottle full every day. Sponge cake or cookies may be added. Quite as important as having good food is chewing it well. See to it that your child's teeth are in good condition. Children with rotten teeth cannot flourish and keep well. Instruct your child to chew his food thoroughly. The stomach has no teeth.

You can pay more for sausage not so good, but you can't get better sausage than Thomas Bros. at any price.

COACHES HIT BY PREXY HIBBEN

Are Abused Over His Statement That They Are a Detriment to the Universities

MUCH ARGUMENT IS HEARD

Heard of Princeton Declares Athletics Would Profit if Coaches Were Thrown Out in Cold.

BY HAL SHERIDAN
(Written for United Press.)

New York, Jan. 29.—Those big-chested individuals who direct their efforts toward training the college mussels to grow and expand are all "het up." "For why" they demand "should we be picked on, for why?"

The object of their wrath is John Grier Hibben, who succeeded Woodrow Wilson at presiding Princeton University. According to Nassau's classic head, college coaches are a detriment to a school and absolutely fatal to the rah-rah spirit. That isn't exactly the way Prexy said it, but that's the gist of his charge. Also, according to Hibben school athletics as a whole would profit immensely if the whole litter of paid coaches were ousted into the cold gray to "work" for a living.

The statement coming from the head of one of the largest universities in the country has aroused a storm of comment and argument, particularly through the east where there are many small colleges besides the larger ones, employing salaried mentors.

The best defense of the paid coach system was advanced here today by a veteran coach who now is retired from the game. He hooted Hibben's arguments.

"Scientists tell us," he said "that a healthy mind depends largely on a healthy body—the growth of the body should be apace with that of the mind. Then why cast out the coach? He is an instructor, just as much as a professor.

"Would Mr. Hibben have a member of a class in Latin perform the duties of instructor? It looks just as rational to me. Athletics are a part of college life just as much as essential as expert class instructors."

WOULD CHANGE LAW ON THE ADMISSION

Ed Voris of Crawfordsville Believes Children Need Not be Orphans to Get Into Home.

THEN HE CITES AN EXAMPLE

Ed Voris, of Crawfordsville, who very acceptably served two terms as a member of the Lower House of the Indiana General Assembly, was a visitor at a session of the legislature one day recently, and said:

"I have nothing personal to ask," said Mr. Voris, "but I would like to see a change in the law regulating the admission of children to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Knightstown. Under the present law children, whose parents are living, can not be admitted. In our town we have an old soldier with three children. It is all he can do to make a miserable living. His wife is insane and there is no one to give the children the attention they should have. He does not wish these children separated and we are trying to have them taken into the Knightstown Home."

SHOULD RESTRICT FOUNDATIONS BY LAW

Members of Commission on Industrial Relations Believe This After Investigation

MAY MAKE RECOMMENDATION

New York, Jan. 29.—That the life of philanthropic foundations should be restricted by law is the opinion of a majority of the members of the federal commission on industrial relations. The evidence already presented is declared by some of the members to emphasize the need of some action and it is expected such a recommendation will be made to congress. This with compulsory representation upon the boards, as about as far as a majority of the commission believe it will be advisable to go in curbing legislation.

The groundhog is supposed to dominate the weather after his appearance on February 2, but Rev. Irl Hicks anticipates him and tells you just what you are likely to receive, even to the earthquakes, as he predicted them in January. Read it and see how you like it:

The first reactionary storm period is central on the 1st, 2d and 3d. A change to warmer weather will pass from west to east over most parts of the country on and touching the 1st, 2d and 3d, attended by falling barometer, cloudless and rain—the rain turning to snow over central to northern sections of the country. The moon will be on the celestial equator on the 3d, moving toward its south declination. Winter lightning and thunder, especially southward, will be natural on and touching that date, but sudden revulsion to severe cold should be looked for within a few hours of these electrical storms. This change to rising barometer and cold, clearing weather, will reach most parts of the country, moving from west to east, from about the 2d to the 6th.

The first regular storm period extends over the 5th to the 11th, having its center on Sunday, the 7th.

These storms will be crossing the central Mississippi valley about the 8th and 9th, with barometer rising and cold, clearing weather advancing from the west, and threatening storms approaching the Atlantic coast states.

The second reactionary storm period falls centrally on the 12th, 13th and 14th. The Venus disturbance will still contribute its influence in connection with the moon's conjunction with the earth and sun on the 13th.

A wave of warmer weather, falling barometer and sudden, severe storms of wind and rain, followed by snow and cold, will touch most sections—beginning far west—on and touching the 12th, 13th and 14th.

The second regular storm period is central on the 19th, extending in its influence from the 16th to the 21st. The 18th, 19th and 20th are the culminating days of this period. On and touching these days, storms of greater or less severity will prevail generally.

The third reactionary storm period is central on the 24th, 25th and 26th. On and touching these days, all careful observers will see that the sky will soften, winds will turn to southerly, followed by falling barometer, change to warmer, with return of rain and snow, drifting progressively over the country from west to east. Another decided spurt of cold, with rising barometer and northwest winds, will follow these storms. Cold, disagreeable weather will prevail over most parts of the country, as February comes to a close. Under the influence of an oncoming regular storm period, change to warmer, with falling barometer, will be noted in extreme western parts of the country about the 27th and 28th. These conditions will increase and spread eastward during the opening days of March.

Seismic disturbances will be reported during the first three to four days of February, the period being central on January 30th.

Thousands All Over Country Responding to
"S O S" Wireless Sent Out by Churches
GO TO CHURCH!
Think for one minute what this world would be without churches. Are you doing your part to support them by your attendance? In recent years there had been a surprising falling off in church attendance figures. People stayed away from church--some because they had lost faith, but the great number simply because they had become apathetic. It was time that this apathy ceased. And it has to a large extent. With the advent of the GO TO CHURCH movement there has been a splendid awakening all over the country. Religion had only been dormant. The GO TO CHURCH call found a ready response. New churches have sprung up in many quarters. The old churches, which for some time past were remarkable for their empty pews, suddenly took on new life. The pews were filled. Men and women who had not been to church in a decade came back to the fold. They brought with them others.
THE CHURCHES SENT OUT A "S O S" WIRELESS. NEWS-PAPERS HELPED. SO DID THE TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANIES. SO DID THE TRADESMEN. NOVEL IDEAS FOR WORKING UP ENTHUSIASM WERE PLENTIFUL. IN CHICAGO, FOR INSTANCE, FIFTY BARBERS IN SHOPS ON THE WEST SIDE WERE ENLISTED. THE PLAN OF INTERESTING THEM WAS HIT UPON BY A CLERGYMAN WHILE UNDERGOING A RAZOR OPERATION. HE ASKED THE BARBER TO REFER TO THE GO TO CHURCH MOVEMENT WHILE SHAVING HIS CUSTOMERS, AND THE ARTIST OF THE STROP CONSENTED. SHOP AFTER SHOP WAS VISITED UNTIL FIFTY AGREED TO SPEAK ABOUT THE MOVEMENT. THE PLAN WORKED WONDERFUL RESULTS. ALL THAT THE PEOPLE WANTED WAS A REMINDER. THE STORY OF CHICAGO IS THE STORY OF HUNDREDS OF OTHER PLACES. EVERYBODY HELPED THE THING ALONG. DO YOUR PART.

Purple Is Reigning Color In Motor Toggery This Winter

BY MARGARET MASON
(Written for United Press.)

If motor fashions you would know You, auto go to the auto show, For this year it is apropos To match your togs to your tonneau.

New York, Jan. 29.—A heliotrope colored limousine with heliotrope curtains behind which lolls on heliotrope cushions, a lady in a heliotrope motor coat, a heliotrope motor bonnet and accompanied by a Perkinese with a heliotrope silk sweater, is one of the smart sights of Fifth avenue and the park these bright imitation Spring afternoons. The unknown purple lady is the exponent of the new fashionable fad to match up your apparel and even your pets to the coloring of your newest motor car.

With violet shades at the latest coloring at Paris it is only natural there should be a great run on purple veilings, purple coats and caps and sweaters.

A stunning new model motor coat of dreadnaught grey made of lightweight velours cloth hangs loose and rippling from the shoulders and is defined at the waistline in front with a quaint belt formed with two straps of the material which cross over each other and button with a cloth-covered button on opposite sides. A high choker collar of white cloth buttons on the left side with a single cloth covered button well up under the ear. Wide cuffs of the white cloth finish the plain long sleeves and a close fitting little hat with a cuff of the white turned up all around the face completes a perfect outfit with which to step into one of those lovely dark grey cars with grey cloth upholstery.

Another striking coat of buff ripple cloth is gathered on a narrow yoke both front and back, has an odd collar which turns into a short scarf that buttons over with two short ends in front. A brown suede turban with a single yellow rose in front fits close around the head. Naturally the motor that waits for this buff beauty is even buffier in tones.

Suede is being used to a great extent for the smartest new motor head gear and, as it comes in all the most approved colorings and is soft and adaptable, it is an ideal material for such use. It is also very effective as a trimming on the motor coat and wrap de lux and is used to face the cuffs and collars with artistic effect. Although not so serviceable it is prettier and softer than the regulation leather buttons and bandings that have been used for several seasons.

Naturally the wonderful silk sweaters that grow more beautiful and nearer perfection from season to season are bound to be the favorite motor attire of the warm spring weather. The sets of cap and sweat to match are rarely striking and have the advantage of being lightweight yet warm and serviceable and vastly becoming, all at the very same time. There are two forms of caps, those which are knitted into a close fitting shape like a bathing cap and those which are simply knitted silk scarfs that you must yourself twist about your head and fasten with a hook concealed with a button or silk pompom ornament on the right side.

One of the smartest types of the silk sweater comes in plaid effect with a collar and vest-like strip down the front of a plain color. The plaid cap has a band of the plain silk around the face.

The very newest material for extra warm sweaters is a silk wool which is fuzzy and light as thistle-down.

It is no longer considered good to have flower filled holders in your car, but all the other comforts of home, including a rack which holds a vanity case, card case, pads, pencils, and a clock, another rack for hats and parcels electric cigar lighters with rests and ashtrays, holders for books and magazines, a rack for your umbrella with a drain which goes through the bottom of the car and allows your wet umbrella to drip with impunity, an electric foot-warmer and even electric attached gloves if you yourself take a fancy to sit at your own wheel on a winter's day are a few of the improvements. Even with all these fittings you may fit in too if you don't mind struggling up a bit.

Baking Powders can be had

Calumet Baking came from the oven,
I felt confident that no baking powder

CALUMET
BAKING POWDER

A Calumet indorsement from Mrs. J. A. Schumacher, Fort Wayne's leading cateress. A woman known throughout Indiana and many Eastern states for her famously delicious cakes. A woman whose interest in Baking Powder goes below the pride of culinary skill, for she makes a business of baking.

To make that business pay—to make it an all round success (and it is a tremendous success) not only must the very best bakings be produced — bakings which create a demand for more of their kind—but uncertainty, waste of time, waste of ingredients and the cost of production must be kept at a minimum.

All of these things — better bakings, certain results, lower baking costs—are realized says Mrs. Schumacher through the use of Calumet Baking Powder.

Order a can on trial. Use enough for one baking. See the results. If you are not delighted, purchase price will be refunded. Use the baking powder that has helped win greater fame for scores of famous pastry bakers. Today.

COMMISSION FORM OFFERED

Bill Introduced Today Aimed to Help
Cities That Are Dissatisfied
With Present Government

FIRST IN HISTORY OF STATE

Includes Both Commission and Commission-Manager—Civil Service
Board Provided For

Indianapolis, Jan. 29.—Cities dissatisfied with their form of government viewed hopefully the bill introduced by Senator George C Wood (Dem.) today providing for either the commission or the commission-manager form of government. The bill is the first ever before the assembly to offer these forms to every city in the state, irrespective of size. The bill was drawn after much research and study of various city government plans by Frank G. Lates, professor of political science of Indiana University.

Plan of government very similar to that holding at Dayton, O., is proposed in the commission-manager division. The commission plan proposes to concentrate all the power and responsibility of the city government in a body of five persons elected from the city at large. The commission-manager plan is similar but instead of the commissioners themselves taking up the active work of administration the commission selects a business manager for the city, who is the head of the administration, appointing all officers under him and being generally responsible for the administration to the commission.

Both plans make careful provision for a budget, and the method of submitting the estimates is set forth in the bill. Not only are detailed estimates for each department required, but in parallel columns there must be submitted the expenditures for the same items for the two previous years. The estimates must also include the amount of supplies and materials on hand at the time the estimate is made out.

A civil service board is provided in both plans and practically all the officers and employees of the city are under the civil service requirements. The exempt officers include the commissioners, the members of the civil service commission, the business manager and the other officials appointed by the commission. Both plans provide for initiative and referendum, citizens being enabled to submit ordinances to the commission or to compel ordinances of the commission to be submitted to popular vote. The recall also is provided for. For the election of commissioners, the direct primaries are required.

The general outline of the form of government is nearly the same under the two plans. The full power and responsibility over the affairs of the city are vested in the commission. This is the only body responsible to the people. Under the strict commission plan the members of the commission plan the members themselves are the administrative heads of the departments of the government. The administration is divided into five departments: public safety, finance, treasury, utility, public works and health. At its first meeting after election the commission assigns one commissioner to be head of each department, the commissioner of public safety being mayor. The latter is the official head of the city signing all bonds, franchise grants and licenses. He has an equal vote with other members, but has no veto. The commissioners' salaries would range from $1,000 to $4,000 according to the size of the city. The mayor would receive 20 per cent, in addition to compensate for his additional duties.

The commissioner-manager plan, or business manager plan, is a modification of the strict commission form and provides for ever greater centralization of administrative control and responsibility. The commission and the mayor have essentially the same powers and responsibilities as before with the single from the body to the steel. Others were called in and it worked for them just the same. Frazee thought that it was confined to his office but a visit to the auditor's office showed that it was in that room as well although none in there had ever noticed it.

A visit to the other offices showed that the elements were also at work there. Clerk Taylor had never noticed it until his attention was called and the same was true of the county recorder, Charles Brooks. If anything the noise was more noticeable in the clerks' office than any other place.

As a result of all this some shocking scenes are expected. While all the officials agree that it is electricity the whole thing has never been fully explained and what they worry about is how it comes to be there. The best explanation offered so far is that this static electricity is confined in the chair bottoms. The bottoms are made of coarse hair and the little charges of electricity are conveyed to the body and then the charges jump from the body to any steel object. The peculiar actions of the electricity has attracted the attention of many persons and almost everyone visiting the court house today was given a demonstration that the story was "no grapevine."

tates in excess of $100,000, the proposal to tax large estates as high as 30 or 40 per cent and similar propaganda as "this reaction of progress which the direct Democrats and Socialists have joined in praising."

He said it did not mean the triumph of direct democracy, but the coming of a conflict, "if this representative republic is not to strike its colors to the leveler, the Socialist, the political fanatic."

Chairman Hays spoke with enthusiasm of his association with the editors and their work in behalf of the party.

"The relation of the Republican press to the state organization is the relation of the eye, the ear, the tongue and the heart," he said. "The Republican press is a part of the Republican state organization in Indiana—a part so intimate, a member so vital, that to remove it is impossible, to separate at would destroy the organization."

"If there is any advice that I would give to the editors of the state and nation, Republican, independent and Democratic, which, if followed, would, in my opinion, carry them farthest in the full discharge of their high duty in their important position, it would be that they advocate Republican principles all the time."

"I say that the overthrow of Democratic misadministration and the complete restoration of the Republican party to power, with the consequent renewed practice of the Republican principles that have made this country, is a question of patriotism, not of partisanship. There shall be no closed season now in Republican politics in Indiana. And I plead with you, you, the most important division of this great army of promoters of progress and prosperity, to advance continually."

"The Democratic party is now an apology. They have been explaining in Indiana from the time you made the Governor of the state opening the campaign spend his two hour keynote speech defending his administration against attacks made before the campaign opened, until they sent for the President of the United States to make it unanimous, and defend his administration from attacks made after the campaign was supposed to be closed.

"From the outpouring of inconsistencies this candidate for renomination brought up the dignified, statesmanlike tidbit that the Republican party, the party that has written every law, formulated every statute, advanced every theory and carried out every single principle that has made this country the mystery of the ages, had not had a new idea for thirty years. Very well—they have caught one now—that any man who has been elected President of the United States, could make that speech and expect to be elected again."

SEVERAL INFANTRY CLASHES

(By United Press.)

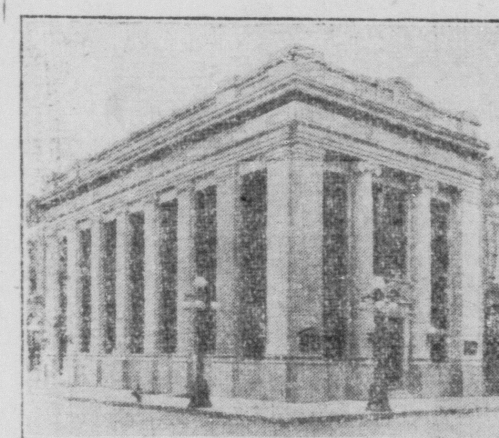

Paris, Jan. 29.—Slight gains for the allies forced along the seacoast near Nieuport where infantry fighting has been in progress for the last 24 hours were reported in dispatches from the front today.

The French took a German position today near St. Georges. Elsewhere around Nieuport and in the region south toward Ypres there were infantry clashes but the Germans evidently are awaiting the arrival of the reinforcements reported by aerial scouts before making a determined attack.

Capture of a German aviator whose machine was shot down near the seacoast was one of the features of yesterday's fighting.

ELECTION TO BE PUT OFF A MONTH"Wets" Will Withhold Petitions, Fearing They Might be Thrown
Out on Technicality.

IF CALLED NEXT MONDAY

Election, to be Within Thirty Days,
Would Fall in Two-Year
Period City is "Dry."

It was authentically stated today that the petition asking for the calling of a "wet" and "dry" election would not be filed in time for the county commissioners to take up at the regular February meeting next Monday, but would be allowed to slide over until the March meeting of the board of commissioners.

In the meantime six additional petitions are being circulated in an effort to get more signers. The reason given for not filing the petition in time to be acted on at the February meeting is that the "wets" do not want to take a chance on having the petition thrown out on a technicality and when they file it they want it to be sure and go through.

Under the law the commissioners are compelled to call an election not less than twenty days and more than thirty days after they meet in regular session. If the petition was filed in time for action Monday of next week and the election called for thirty days later it would be illegal, according to the "wets," as the thirty days would place the election before the time the city voted "dry" two years ago. The city voted "dry" on March 4 and under the law became officially "dry" on this date and as the election would have to be held on a date later than this it would be impossible with the thirty-day limit clause in the law.

According to present arrangements the campaign will be put off about one month later. With the filing of the petition in time for the regular March meeting of the commissioners and providing the election is called, which the "wets" say will be done, the election will be held the latter part of March.

The "wet" workers claim to have enough names now to call an election but in order to keep the petitions alive they are being circulated and more names obtained. This is not necessary, according to the workers, but is done to keep up the interest and make the petition good.

Church Will Leave.

The last sermon in the series on the basic truths of the Christian faith that Dr. Z. T. Sweeney is preaching at the Main Street Christian church will be delivered tonight. The subject is "Have We a Model for the Salvation of all People?" The high type of preaching that Dr. Sweeney has been doing assures him a large audience tonight. Those who have been following him from night to night will be exceedingly sorry to know that tonight will be his last appearance here at this time. Mr. Sweeney has fulfilled every expectation concerning him and may leave with the satisfaction that all who have heard him have been not only highly pleased but have been rightly benefited. The week's effort is bound to bear fruit for many months to come, it is believed.

Mr. Sweeney preached last night on the subject "The Church of God and Who May Belong to It." Reciting an incident in his own career while he was United States minister to Turkey in which the American flag saved the life of himself and his family his tribute to the flag was a classic.

The usual services will be held Sunday, the pastor preaching both morning and evening.

80 ACRES ONCE
SOLD FOR $30Old Records Indicate What Real Estate Now in Heart of Rushville
Was Worth Century Ago.

SEXTON ADDITION HISTORY

Quarter Section Originally Entered
Entered June 20, 1822.—Other
Old Relics Prized Highly.

A comparative value of real estate today and almost a century ago here in Rushville may be found in the brief history of what is known now as the Horatio G. Sexton heirs addition to Rushville. It was comprised of eighty acres of land, which was half of a United States land grant of one hundred and sixty acres made June 20, 1822 to Jonathan Garard.

That same eighty acres may now be described in general terms as that part of Rushville lying north of the C. H. & D. railroad and between Perkins and Jackson streets as the eastern and western boundaries. The fact that this tract of land sold at sheriff's sale February 7, 1829, for thirty dollars reveals the strides that have been made in real estate values. There is none who would attempt to place a valuation on the real estate as it is now situated with its improvements.

The original tract was known as the southwest quarter of section 32, township 14, north, range 10, east, containing 160 acres. Jonathan Garard received the land by certificate of entry at the United States land office June 20, 1822. It was recorded as his property May 22, 1826. By warranty deed, on the same date, it was transferred by Jonathan Garard and wife Ann I. Charles H. Veeder for the consideration of $400. The transfer was recorded June 19, 1826.

The next two years were evidently ones of financial distress for Charles H. Veeder, because the next record in regard to this tract of land shows that it sold for the small sum of eighty dollars at sheriff's sale. William S. Bassett was the sheriff at that time. The sale took place October 26, 1828, at the court house here. The east half of the quarter section went to Jeremiah Wood for fifty dollars, there being no bidder. The west half was sold to Charles H. Test, the plaintiff, he being the highest bidder, for thirty dollars.

The next record on the west half of that quarter section, because that was the eighty acres that ultimately came into the hands of the H. G. Sexton heirs, shows that Charles H. Test and wife transferred it by warranty deed February 7, 1829 to Eve Veeder for the sum of $250.

Whether Eve Veeder and Charles H. Test were related is not set forth in any of the records but it is presumed that they were and that Eve Veeder, whether for sentimental reasons or otherwise, wanted to come into possession of at least a part of the land which Charles H. Veeder had allowed to be sold at public auction.

Eve Veeder held the land for a little over three years and then sold it August 28, 1832 for $600 to Horatio G. Sexton. Thus, it will be seen that Eve Veeder may have had something more than sentimental reasons for acquiring the land, since she realized a profit of $350 on the exchange.

The history of this piece of land further indicates that deals in real estates in Rushville were not without profit even ninety years ago. When Charles H. Test picked up that west half of the quarter section at sheriff's sale for thirty dollars

Committee Will Meet With One From
Democratic Body to Discuss
State Organization.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 29.—The Republican editors at their annual business session here today elected the following officers for the coming year:

President, Newton W. Spencer, of Greenfield; vice-president, George B. Lindsay, of Marion; secretary, J. A. Kuntz, of Kokomo and treasurer, Harry J. Martinsville.

A committee was appointed to meet with a similar committee representing the Indiana Democratic editors to act concerning a state editorial association.

Filled with optimism over political situation, confident of victory in 1916, Republican editors of Indiana and many party workers gathered at the Hotel Severin last night for the annual Editorial Association banquet. More than 300 men and women were aroused to a high pitch of enthusiasm by George W. Hinman, president of Marietta (O.) College, speaker of the evening, whose subject was "Representative Government."

Col. George B. Lockwood of Muncie, president of the Editorial Association, was toastmaster. He and Chairman Will Hays of the state committee spoke briefly preceding Mr. Hinman.

Col. Lockwood introduced Mr. Hinman, who was accorded an old-fashioned Hoosier welcome. The speaker dealt in a forceful manner with present-day problems, taking strong issue with President Wilson and other Democratic leaders.

He condemned the advocates of "direct democracy" and declared that the representative form of government has stood the test of time, and cannot be improved upon. Many of his reforms clamored for at the present time, he declared, were known to be fallacious in the days when the constitution was framed, and therefore were discarded by the makers of that instrument. He asserted, however, that the cry of the fanatic should not be passed by without careful thought. "There is a conflict," he said, "and we are summoned to go forth and do battle for that government which has proved itself, by experience, to be the safest, strongest and fairest device of man to guarantee the rule of the people, for the people, in enduring form."

"We read that everything is different today," continued Mr. Hinman. "Granted, everything but the main thing—man. Man, the instrument of the body politic, with his passion, impulse, strength, weakness, virtue, vice, evolves slowly and imperceptibly. He has developed in general since 1787, when our constitution was adopted, but does he live up to the standard set for him by those who demand a new political heaven and earth to fit this new political nature?"

This is the point, Mr. Hinman declared, that direct democracy advocates and "radical reconstructionists" like President Wilson have overlooked, and the whole point on which the conflict hinges. "We still deal with men, not superman," he explained.

Mr. Hinman referred to the minimum wage, maximum price, the suggestion to confiscate at death all es-

FREE LUNCH COMMENDABLE

Republican Senators Call Democratic Economy Hypocritical and Cite the Proof.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 29.—The house today refused to amend the three-mile road law to provide the roads can not be built by petition. By a vote of 42 to 48 the bill of Representative Foster to provide that no road shall be built without being approved at an election was killed, in spite of Foster's speech against "taxation by petition."

The Indiana house today decided that the school free lunch was a commendable institution and should be continued. The committee reported recommending that consideration of the bill authored by Edwin Davis to abolish free lunches for sanitary reasons be indefinitely postponed and his report was adopted by five yeas and no nays.

Republican senators called Democratic economy hypocritical when the bill of Senator Thornton, Democrat, reducing the salary of Prosecutor Backer, Republican of Marion county, to $5,000 with an allowance of $7,500 out of which he would pay 25 deputies was advanced to consideration.

Senator Robinson and Senator White declared it didn't look well for those who raised the salaries in Marion county two years ago when Democrats were in office to reduce them after the Republicans captured the offices.

Two years ago the salary of the Marion county recorder was raised from $13,000 to $18,000 a year.

The Thornton bill also provides all fees collected by Backer shall go to the county. They have been going to the recorder and have raised his total to $25 a year.

Though the committee unanimously recommended death for the "house bill abolishing the office of highway superintendent a vote of the house gave the bill reprieve.

The house killed the Edwin Davis bill giving members of the county council five dollar fees.

Bills introduced in the senate were: Clarke, to abolish the public roller (over); Clarke, to raise the age of consent from sixteen to eighteen years; Patton making a class-

IT IS ALL OVER COURT HOUSE

The court house is full of electricity, but the fact was not discovered until yesterday, although it had been a source of worry to Charles A. Frazee, deputy county treasurer, ever since he has been in office. He was the only county official that noticed the electricity and now that it has been found in all the rooms of the court house the county officials are having no end of fun getting "shot in the arm."

For the first few days after Mr.

Frazee had taken his office he noticed peculiar little sensations whenever he would attempt to get up from one of the leather bottom chairs. He paid no attention to it but the other day when he went to the adding machine and touched it sparks flew from the ends of his fingers. This was enough for Charles. He was certain the Democrats had set an infernal machine for him.

Yesterday the electricity was more noticeable than ever. Mr. Frazee called in Charles Bales, deputy auditor, to show him the electricity. It acted on Mr. Bales the same way. They would first sit down in one of the leather bottom chairs and then, on arising, would touch some object of steel and everytime there would be a spark or a crackling noise of the spark jumping

What it Lacks in Votes it Makes up
In Prolific and Militant Delegation to Legislature

NEW MEASURE EVERY DAY

Are Now Working on Reapportionment so That They Can Have More Representatives

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Jan. 29.—Firmly insisting that Lake county is entitled to more complete representation in the assembly, but unable until this year to get it, that county has partially solved the problem by sending one of the most prolific and militant delegations to the capitol. Although Lake claims third or fourth place in the list of counties, it has only two representatives and one Senator, and one of the former owes part time to Newton county. Better times are coming following the reapportionment.

But Lake county is not suffering except in votes. Every day some new Lake county measure is introduced and more are brewing. The Gary bill making that city second instead of fourth class, which has passed the senate and is in the house has made more progress so far than the others.

"Lake again!" and then a sigh. That's the way the other members get when Van Horn or Kinder rise in their seats. They always listen though, for the members from there have something interesting to say. The cartoonists have picked out these two men as "easy marks" largely because anyone would recognize them from a mass of long black hair and a firm jaw.

Senator Kinder intends soon to put in a bill allowing cities and towns to co-operate through their councils or trustees to form park districts. The councils and trustees would form park boards with powers similar to those given second class cities. The bill will be of state wide application and interest, but is designed more particularly to meet a situation at Gary. Gary wishes to combine with Miller, Hobart and Chesterton, three towns to establish a park at Miller.

and sold it to Eve Veeder within 3 months at a profit of $220.

Further records of this land show the testimony of Harmony Laughlin known in the early days of Rushville as the town wit and one who often "broke into" the court record, was in effect that Eve was not married when she sold the eighty acres to Horation G. Sexton and that Charles H. Veeder was unmarried when the same eighty acres he owned was sold at public auction.

In the deed given when the quarter section was disposed of is a recital of the facts regarding the sheriff's sale, which recalls some history and which reveals that no newspaper was published in Rushville at the time. The execution on the judgment was as follows:

Execution issued on the above judgment on July 1, 1828, and the sheriff makes the following return thereon, to-wit:

"By virtue of this execution, on the first day of July, 1828, there being no personal property whereon to levy, I seized the southwest quarter of section 32, township 14, north, range 10, in the county of Rush, aforesaid, and gave legal notice in the Fayette Observer, a paper printed at Comersville, Fayette county, Indiana, and also in three of the most public places in the township of Rushville, county of Rush, aforesaid, that I would sell the land aforesaid at public auction at the court house, in Rushville, on the 26th day of July, 1828, and according to the notice so given, aforesaid, I proceeded to offer the rents and profits of the land aforesaid, and there being no bidder, I then offered the east half of said quarter, and sold the same to Jeremiah Wood for $50, and the fee simple of the west half of said quarter, section aforesaid, was then and there sold to Charles H. Test, the plaintiff, he being the highest bidder, for the sum of $50, thirty of which amount, aforesaid, was applied to payment of fee bills in my hands.

Mrs. Ora Morgan has a number of relics which she prizes highly. Among them are two books, one of which is an English reader printed in 1817. Another is an army book published for the information of officers in administrative positions. It was issued in 1864. Mrs. Morgan has no knowledge of how she came in possession of them, except that the army book was given to her by some one to play with when she was a child.

Mrs. Morgan has also saved one stocking and a pair of wrist bands worn by her grandmother, Margaret Moore, who died March 10, 1893, at the age of seventy-eight years, six months and nine days. She was known in Rushville as "Aunt Peggy" Moore. Mrs. Morgan also has a letter which was written May 22, 1852 from Ashley postoffice, Colebrook, Illinois by A. S. Boyd to B. D. Moore, her grandfather.

WHEAT SOARS TO $1.42 PER BUSHEL

Even at That Figure Little is Offered

For Sale and Corn Holds

Steady at 68.

FARMERS SEE $2.00 WHEAT

Not content with the $1.40 mark, wheat has soared gracefully to $1.42 here. But even at that figure little was offered for sale. Farmers who have wheat seem to be holding on to it for the $1.50 price, which has been held up to them as a sort of ideal. Corn remained at 68 cents here today.

Local farmers and people following the wheat situation have got so used to the big advances being made by that "golden grain" that the same ones who gasped at the $1.10 market last summer following the outbreak of the war, gave only a passing interest to the new price of $1.42.

AFTER MANY MEDICINES FAILED

Mr. Singletary Says Vinol Ended His Suffering from an Awful Cough and Threatened Lung Trouble.

Sumter, S. C.—"I am an oculist and for several years I suffered with an awful cough and lung trouble, so that at times I was scarcely able to go about on account of my condition. I had tried almost every medicine recommended for such troubles, without help, and finally a friend advised me to try Vinol. Before I had taken one-half bottle I could see an improvement. I have now taken six bottles and my cough is not only gone but my general health is lots better."—J. W. SINGLETARY, Sumter, S. C.

It is the combined action of the medicinal elements found in cod livers together with the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron, that makes Vinol so efficient for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis, at the same time building up the weakened, run-down system.

We ask everyone in this vicinity who is troubled with a chronic cough, cold or bronchitis to try a bottle of Vinol, with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not benefit.

A Contributing Cause.

How many people in this community are living on their own money?

If the question was put to each person individually he unquestionably would answer that he is living on his own funds. And he doubtless would be entirely sincere in his statement.

But are we really living on our own money?

Let's dig down under the surface and see what we find.

For the sake of argument we will assume that you are running an account with the grocer, and the butcher, and possibly other merchants.

You pay, of course, but perhaps you make settlement only every sixty or ninety days. Some even pay their bills only twice a year.

Now was it your money that paid the wholesaler for the goods you are using and for which you have not paid, or was it the merchant's?

We contend that fully one-half the people are living from day to day on other people's money, and by doing so they are themselves directly contributing to the present high cost of living.

Now control your rising anger for a moment, and we will humbly endeavor to show you why you are keeping prices up.

The average mercantile stock costs several thousands of dollars, and it must be paid for in cash or the merchant must obtain a line of credit from the wholesaler. And when he buys his goods on credit he pays a higher price for them.

In turn you buy your goods from the merchant on credit, and he in self-defense must add still an additional "safety" profit. In other words, he must charge more than a cash price in order to protect himself from the certainty of loss consequent upon slow collections, bad debts and other annoyances.

Thus two "safety" profits are added to the original selling prices of the article.

Do you see how it works—how the price is boosted?

If every customer paid spot cash for his goods the merchant in turn could do the same with the wholesaler, thereby securing from the latter a discount for cash of possibly 7 1/2 to 10 per cent.

And then the merchant himself would not be required to add the "safety profit" to his goods, which would mean another substantial reduction in the price of the article, and all because of the simple expedience of handing the cash over the counter.

Now doesn't it look as though this practice of living on other people's money is costing us considerably more than we are justified in paying for such a doubtful privilege?

It might require some slight inconvenience and a little temporary retrenchment in order to change over to a cash system, but if a merchant made you a flat offer of a fifteen or twenty per cent. discount for cash you would jump at the opportunity.

Doesn't it appear to be to the advantage of everybody in this community to wipe out the baneful credit system and buy and sell for cash?

It certainly looks that way to us. How does it appear to you?

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dryness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.

Prepared for the United Press by Dr. J. N. Hurty
State Health Commissioner

(Dr. Hurty will answer questions on prevention of disease, hygiene and sanitation. Questions requiring a personal answer cannot be considered. To avoid delay, address all questions direct to the UNITED PRESS ASSOCIATIONS, 38 1/2 West Washington St., Indianapolis. Questions may be sent to THE DAILY REPUBLICAN if preferred.)

Johnny Cake writes—"Is corn bread healthful?"

Reply—Yes corn bread is one of the most healthful foods ever discovered.

A. B. C. writes—"Please suggest a remedy for diarrhea."

Reply—I do not care to suggest a remedy for diarrhea. This is because I do not know the cause in your instance, and this makes a great deal of difference. If it is chronic diarrhea you probably never will be cured, but the condition may be relieved. If it is acute diarrhea a dose of castor might be taken and then cure will result through nature's processes.

Anxious mother writes—"Please suggest some good lunches that I could put up with little expense to send with my children to school."

Reply—Good bread and butter must make the basis of all lunches. The bread must be well baked. Soggy bread is an abomination, causing dyspepsia and ill health. Always put butter on the bread for it is a food which naturally goes with bread and which is needed by the growing child. In all lunches, include fruit. An apple, an orange, one or two bananas, figs or any fruit. Also include a little pot of jam or jelly. Beware of soggy pie. Soggy pie crust falls into the stomach in a lump and can not be easily digested. Fresh, flaky pie crust with fruit between is healthful, but soggy pie crust is terrible. Occasionally put in a hard boiled egg with a little salt for the same. Occasionally include a small piece of meat of any kind properly cooked. Don't fry or cook your meat until it is like leather. "Soft-cook" them. By this is meant they must be cooked through but must not be dry and hard. A good ingredient for lunches is well-cooked rice. Fill a jelly glass with well-cooked rice slightly sugared. Include a bottle of milk occasionally or if the child likes milk give it a bottle full every day. Sponge cake or cookies may be added. Quite as important as having good food is chewing it well. See to it that your child's teeth are in good condition. Children with rotten teeth cannot flourish and keep well. Instruct your child to chew his food thoroughly. The stomach has no teeth.

You can pay more for sausage not so good, but you can't get better sausage than Thomas Bros. at any price.

GOOD TIMES Are Surely Headed This Way

In no other publication is there given such an all-sided narrative of the world's developments in commerce, science, invention, literature, religion, art—everything that really counts in life. It is eagerly read not only by the leaders in business, but by the smaller business men as well, by professional men, by thoughtful people in all occupations, because in two hours' reading weekly they get a clear survey of important happenings all over the world, uninfluenced by personal editorial bias or coloring.

"How Long Will the War Last?"

—is an important article giving the opinions of leading men of the countries involved—in January 30th issue.

A unique regular feature of the DIGEST'S war chronicle is the extracts from the European press—translations and reprints of war reports, documents; reproductions of photographs and cartoons from the newspapers published in the countries at war—Great Britain, France, Germany, Belgium, Turkey, Japan, Russia, as well as Italy, and the Balkan States. Know what the people of the warring countries think of this fearful struggle.

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio—"My left side pained me so for several years that I expected to have to undergo an operation, but the first bottle I took of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of the pains in my side and I continued its use until I became regular and free from pains. I had asked several doctors if there was anything I could take to help me and they said there was nothing that they knew of. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."

—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 1568 Constant St., Cleveland, Ohio.

Hanover, Pa.—"I suffered from female trouble and the pains were so bad at times that I could not sit down. The doctor advised a severe operation but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it. What joy and happiness it is to be well once more. I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for the Compound."

COACHES HIT BY PREXY HIBBEN

Are Abused Over His Statement That They Are a Detriment to the Universities

MUCH ARGUMENT IS HEARD

Heard of Princeton Declares Athletics Would Profit if Coaches Were Thrown Out in Cold.

BY HAL SHERIDAN

New York, Jan. 29.—Those big-chested individuals who direct their efforts toward training the college mussels to grow and expand are all "het up." "For why" they demand "should we be picked on, for why?"

The object of their wrath is John Grier Hibben, who succeeded Woodrow Wilson at presiding Princeton University. According to Nassau's classic head, college coaches are a detriment to a school and absolutely fatal to the rah-rah spirit. That isn't exactly the way Prexy said it, but that's the gist of his charge. Also, according to Hibben school athletics as a whole would profit immensely if the whole litter of paid coaches were ousted into the cold gray to "work" for a living. The statement coming from the head of one of the largest universities in the country has aroused a storm of comment and argument, particularly through the east where there are many small colleges besides the larger ones, employing salaried mentors.

The best defense of the paid coach system was advanced here today by a veteran coach who now is retired from the game. He hooted Hibben's arguments.

"Scientists tell us," he said "that a healthy mind depends largely on a healthy body—the growth of the body should be apace with that of the mind. Then why cast out the coach? He is an instructor, just as much as a professor.

"Would Mr. Hibben have a member of a class in Latin perform the duties of instructor? It looks just as rational to me. Athletics are a part of college life just as much as essential as expert class instructors."

WOULD CHANGE LAW ON THE ADMISSION

Ed Voris of Crawfordsville Believes Children Need Not be Orphans to Get Into Home.

THEN HE CITES AN EXAMPLE

Ed Voris, of Crawfordsville, who very acceptably served two terms as a member of the Lower House of the Indiana General Assembly, was a visitor at a session of the legislature one day recently, and said:

"I have nothing personal to ask," said Mr. Voris, "but I would like to see a change in the law regulating the admission of children to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Knightstown. Under the present law children, whose parents are living, can not be admitted. In our town we have an old soldier with three children. It is all he can do to make a miserable living. His wife is insane and there is no one to give the children the attention they should have. He does not wish these children separated and we are trying to have them taken into the Knightstown Home."

SHOULD RESTRICT FOUNDATIONS BY LAW

Members of Commission on Industrial Relations Believe This After Investigation

MAY MAKE RECOMMENDATION

New York, Jan. 29.—That the life of philanthropic foundations should be restricted by law is the opinion of a majority of the members of the federal commission on industrial relations. The evidence already presented is declared by some of the members to emphasize the need of some action and it is expected such a recommendation will be made to congress. This with compulsory representation upon the boards, as about as far as a majority of the commission believe it will be advisable to go in curbing legislation.

HICKS HANDS OUT FEW QUAKES

Weather Prognosticator Foresees Seismic Disturbances For February About Groundhog Time.

FINE BIG BUNCH OF SLUSH

Thunderstorms and Blizzards With a Lot of Cold Weather Are on His Program.

The groundhog is supposed to dominate the weather after his appearance on February 2, but Rev. Dr. Hicks anticipates him and tells you just what you are likely to receive, even to the earthquakes, as he predicted them in January. Read it and see how you like it:

The first reactionary storm period is central on the 1st, 2d and 3d. A change to warmer weather will pass from west to east over most parts of the country on and touching the 1st, 2d and 3d, attended by falling barometer, cloudless and rain—the rain turning to snow over central to northern sections of the country. The moon will be on the celestial equator on the 3d, moving toward its south declination. Winter lightning and thunder, especially southward, will be natural on and touching that date, but sudden reversion to severe cold should be looked for within a few hours of these electrical storms. This change to rising barometer and cold, clearing weather, will reach most parts of the country, moving from west to east, from about the 2d to the 6th.

The first regular storm period extends over the 5th to the 11th, having its center on Sunday, the 7th. These storms will be crossing the central Mississippi valley about the 8th and 9th, with barometer rising and cold, clearing weather advancing from the west, and threatening storms approaching the Atlantic coast states.

The second reactionary storm period falls centrally on the 12th, 13th and 14th. The Venus disturbance will still contribute its influence in connection with the moon's conjunction with the earth and sun on the 13th.

A wave of warmer weather, falling barometer and sudden, severe storms of wind and rain, followed by snow and cold, will touch most sections—beginning far west—on and touching the 12th, 13th and 14th.

The second regular storm period is central on the 19th, extending in its influence from the 16th to the 21st. The 18th, 19th and 20th are the culminating days of this period. On and touching these days, storms of greater or less severity will prevail generally.

The third reactionary storm period is central on the 24th, 25th and 26th. On and touching these days, all careful observers will see that the sky will soften, winds will turn to southerly, followed by falling barometer, change to warmer, with return of rain and snow, drifting progressively over the country from west to east. Another decided spurt of cold, with rising barometer and northwest winds, will follow these storms. Cold, disagreeable weather will prevail over most parts of the country, as February comes to a close. Under the influence of an oncoming regular storm period, change to warmer, with falling barometer, will be noted in extreme western parts of the country about the 27th and 28th. These conditions will increase and spread eastward during the opening days of March.

Seismic disturbances will be reported during the first three to four days of February, the period being central on January 30th.

Thousands All Over Country Responding to
"S O S" Wireless Sent Out by Churches

GO TO CHURCH!
Think for one minute what this world would be without churches. Are you doing your part to support them by your attendance? In recent years there had been a surprising falling off in church attendance figures. People stayed away from church--some because they had lost faith, but the great number simply because they had become apathetic. It was time that this apathy ceased. And it has to a large extent. With the advent of the GO TO CHURCH movement there has been a splendid awakening all over the country. Religion had only been dormant.

The GO TO CHURCH call found a ready response. New churches have sprung up in many quarters. The old churches, which for some time past were remarkable for their empty pews, suddenly took on new life. The pews were filled. Men and women who had not been to church in a decade came back to the fold. They brought with them others.

THE CHURCHES SENT OUT A "S O S" WIRELESS. NEWS-PAPERS HELPED. SO DID THE TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANIES. SO DID THE TRADESMEN. NOVEL IDEAS FOR WORKING UP ENTHUSIASM WERE PLENTIFUL. IN CHICAGO, FOR INSTANCE, FIFTY BARBERS IN SHOPS ON THE WEST SIDE WERE ENLISTED. THE PLAN OF INTERESTING THEM WAS HIT UPON BY A CLERGYMAN WHILE UNDERGOING A RAZOR OPERATION. HE ASKED THE BARBER TO REFER TO THE GO TO CHURCH MOVEMENT WHILE SHAVING HIS CUSTOMERS, AND THE ARTIST OF THE STROP CONSENTED. SHOP AFTER SHOP WAS VISITED UNTIL FIFTY AGREED TO SPEAK ABOUT THE MOVEMENT. THE PLAN WORKED WONDERFUL RESULTS. ALL THAT THE PEOPLE WANTED WAS A REMINDER. THE STORY OF CHICAGO IS THE STORY OF HUNDREDS OF OTHER PLACES. EVERYBODY HELPED THE THING ALONG. DO YOUR PART.

You can't make good cream with a dirty cream separator

CREAMERYMEN AND BUYers all over the country are demanding better cream, and if you sell cream it is to your advantage to deliver the best possible cream.

IF YOU MAKE BUTTER IT is equally important that your cream be first-class.
Good butter can't be made from poor cream.

THE ONE FACTOR THAT most largely determines the quality of cream is the sanitarianess of the cream separator bowl in which it is separated.

THE EASE WITH WHICH the De Laval can be thoroughly washed and kept in a sanitary condition is one reason why creamerymen prefer cream separated by the De Laval and it is likewise one of the reasons why butter made from De Laval cream has scored highest at the National Dairy Show for over twenty years.

THE CONSTRUCTION OF the De Laval is such that it can be completely taken apart for washing. There are no tubes, crevices, holes or corrugated surfaces such as are found in other machines, and which are very hard to clean.

THE DISCS ARE WASHED AS a single piece, and the whole machine can be thoroughly cleansed in five minutes.

Purple Is Reigning Color In Motor Toggery This Winter

BY MARGARET MASON
(Written for United Press.)

If motor fashions you would know You, auto go to the auto show, For this year it is apropos To match your togs to your tonneau.

New York, Jan. 29.—A heliotrope colored limousine with heliotrope curtains behind which lolls on heliotrope cushions, a lady in a heliotrope motor coat, a heliotrope motor bonnet and accompanied by a Perkinese with a heliotrope silk sweater, is one of the smart sights of Fifth avenue and the park these bright imitation Spring afternoons. The unknown purple lady is the exponent of the new fashionable fad to match up your apparel and even your pets to the coloring of your newest motor car.

With violet shades at the latest coloring at Paris it is only natural there should be a great run on purple veils, purple coats and caps and sweaters.

A stunning new model motor coat of dreadsought grey made of lightweight velours cloth hangs loose and rippling from the shoulders and is defined at the waistline in front with a quaint belt formed with two straps of the material which cross over each other and button with a cloth-covered button on opposite sides. A high choker collar of white cloth buttons on the left side with a single cloth covered button well up under the ear. Wide cuffs of the white cloth finish the plain long sleeves and a close fitting little hat with a cuff of the white turned up all around the face completes a perfect outfit with which to step into one of those lovely dark grey cars with grey cloth upholstery.

Another striking coat of buff ripple cloth is gathered on a narrow yoke both front and back, has an odd collar which tucks into a short scarf that buttons over with two short ends in front. A brown suede turban with a single yellow rose in front fits close around the head. Naturally the motor that waits for this buff beauty is even buff in tones.

Suede is being used to a great extent for the smartest new motor head gear and, as it comes in all the most approved colorings and is soft and adaptable, it is an ideal material for such use. It is also very effective as a trimming on the motor coat and wrap de lux and is used to face the cuffs and collars with artistic effect. Although not so serviceable it is prettier and softer than the regulation leather buttons and bandings that have been used for several seasons.

Naturally the wonderful silk sweaters that grow more beautiful and nearer perfection from season to season are bound to be the favorite motor attire of the warm spring weather. The sets of cap and sweat-to match are rarely striking and have the advantage of being lightweight yet warm and serviceable and vastly becoming, all at the very same time. There are two forms of caps, those which are knitted into a close fitting shape like a bathing cap and those which are simply knitted silk scarfs that you must yourself twist about your head and fasten with a hook concealed with a button or silk pom-pom ornament on the right side.

One of the smartest types of the silk sweater comes in plaid effect with a collar and vest-like strip down the front of a plain color. The plaid cap has a band of the plain silk around the face.

The very newest material for extra warm sweaters is a silk wool which is fuzzy and light as thistle-down.

It is no longer considered good to have flower filled holders in your car, but all the other comforts of home, including a rack which holds a vanity case, card case, pads, pencils, and a clock, another rack for hats and parcels electric cigar lighters with rests and ashtrays, holders for books and magazines, a rack for your umbrella with a drain which goes through the bottom of the car and allows your wet umbrella to drip with impunity, an electric foot-warmer and even electric attached gloves if you yourself take a fancy to sit at your own wheel on a winters day are a few of the improvements. Even with all these fittings you may fit in too if you don't mind struggling up a bit.

"Before I tried Calumet I was under the impression, as so many are, that good, reliable Baking Powders can be had only at exorbitant prices. But, after the first trial—when my first Calumet Baking came from the oven, I felt confident that no baking powder at any price could produce more gratifying results. The confidence, prompted by that first test, grows stronger the longer I use Calumet, for no other brand ever enabled me to produce such tender, finely grained velvety cakes. No other brand—ever proved so uniform in strength—so absolutely dependable, so economical. So great is the satisfaction I derive from the use of Calumet, that I take pleasure in recommending it to others."

One More Reason Why You Should Use

—and it is the best possible argument in favor of the use of—

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

A Calumet indorsement from Mrs. J. A. Schumacher, Fort Wayne's leading cateress. A woman known throughout Indiana and many Eastern states for her famously delicious cakes. A woman whose interest in Baking Powder goes below the pride of culinary skill, for she makes a business of baking.

To make that business pay—to make it an all 'round success (and it is a tremendous success) not only must the very best bakings be produced—bakings which create a demand for more of their kind—but uncertainty, waste of time, waste of ingredients and the cost of production must be kept at a minimum.

All of these things—better bakings, certain results, lower baking costs—are realized says Mrs. Schumacher through the use of Calumet Baking Powder.

Order a can on trial. Use enough for one baking. See the results. If you are not delighted, purchase price will be refunded. Use the baking powder that has helped win greater fame for scores of famous pastry bakers. Today.

COMMISSION FORM OFFERED

Bill Introduced Today Aimed to Help
Cities That Are Dissatisfied
With Present Government

FIRST IN HISTORY OF STATE

Includes Both Commission and Commission-Manager—Civil Service
Board Provided For

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Jan. 29.—Cities dissatisfied with their form of government viewed hopefully the bill introduced by Senator George C. Wood (Dem.) today providing for either the commission or the commission-manager form of government. The bill is the first ever before the assembly to offer these forms to every city in the state, irrespective of size.
The bill was drawn after much research and study of various city government plans by Frank G. Lates, professor of political science of Indiana University.

Plan of government very similar to that holding at Dayton, O., is proposed in the commission-manager division. The commission plan proposes to concentrate all the power and responsibility of the city government in a body of five persons elected from the city at large. The commission-manager plan is similar but instead of the commissioners themselves taking up the active work of administration the commission selects a business manager for the city, who is the head of the administration, appointing all officers under him and being generally responsible for the administration to the commission.

Both plans make careful provision for a budget, and the method of submitting the estimates is set forth in the bill. Not only are detailed estimates for each department required, but in parallel columns there must be submitted the expenditures for the same items for the two previous years. The estimates must also include the amount of supplies and materials on hand at the time the estimate is made out.

A civil service board is provided in both plans and practically all the officers and employees of the city are under the civil service requirements. The exempt officers include the commissioners, the members of the civil service commission, the business manager and the other officials appointed by the commission.
Both plans provide for initiative and referendum, citizens being enabled to submit ordinances to the commission or to compel ordinances of the commission to be submitted to popular vote. The recall also is provided for. For the election of commissioners, the direct primaries are required.

The general outline of the form of government is nearly the same under the two plans. The full power and responsibility over the affairs of the city are vested in the commission.
This is the only body responsible to the people. Under the strict commission plan the members of the commission the members themselves are the administrative heads of the departments of the government.
The administration is divided into five departments: public safety, finance, treasury, utility, public works and health. At its first meeting after election the commission assigns one commissioner to be head of each department, the commissioner of public safety being mayor. The latter is the official head of the city signing all bonds, franchise grants and licenses. He has an equal vote with other members, but has no veto.
The commissioners' salaries would range from $1,000 to $4,000 according to the size of the city. The mayor would receive 20 per cent. in addition to compensate for his additional duties.

The commissioner-manager plan, or business manager plan, is a modification of the strict commission form and provides for ever greater centralization of administrative control and responsibility. The commission and the mayor have essentially the same powers and responsibilities as before with the single from the body to the steel. Others were called in and it worked for them just the same. Frazee thought that it was confined to his office but a visit to the auditor's office showed that it was in that room as well although none in there had ever noticed it.

A visit to the other offices showed that the elements were also at work there. Clerk Taylor had never noticed it until his attention was called and the same was true of the county recorder, Charles Brooks. If anything the noise was more noticeable in the clerks' office than any other place.

As a result of all this some shocking scenes are expected. While all the officials agree that it is electricity the whole thing has never been fully explained and what they worry about is how it comes to be there.
The best explanation offered so far is that this static electricity is confined in the chair bottoms. The bottoms are made of course hair and the little charges of electricity are conveyed to the body and then the charges jump from the body to any steel object. The peculiar actions of the electricity has attracted the attention of many persons and almost everyone visiting the court house today was given a demonstration that the story was no "grapevine."

tates in excess of $100,000, the proposal to tax large estates as high as 30 or 40 per cent and similar propaganda as "this reaction of progress which the direct Democrats and Socialists have joined in praising."

He said it did not mean the triumph of direct democracy, but the coming of a coalition, "if this representative republic is not to strike its colors to the leveler, the Socialist,
the political fanatic."

Chairman Hays spoke with enthusiasm of his association with the editors and their work in behalf of the party.

"The relation of the Republican press to the state organization is the relation of the eye, the ear, the tongue and the heart," he said. "The Republican press is a part of the Republican state organization in Indiana—a part so intimate, a member so vital, that to remove it is impossible, to separate it would destroy the organization."

"If there is any advice that I would give to the editors of the state and nation, Republican, independent and Democratic, which, if followed, would, in my opinion, carry them farthest in the full discharge of their high duty in their important position, it would be that they advocate Republican principles all the time."

"I say that the overthrow of Democratic misadministration and the complete restoration of the Republican party to power, with the consequent renewed practice of the Republican principles that have made this country, is a question of patriotism, not of partisanship. There shall be no closed season now in Republican politics in Indiana. And I plead with you, you, the most important division of this great army of promoters of progress and prosperity, to advance continually."

"The Democratic party is now an apology. They have been explaining in Indiana from the time you made the Governor of the state opening the campaign spend his two hour keynote speech defending his administration against attacks made before the campaign opened, until they sent for the President of the United States to make it unanimous, and defend his administration from attacks made after the campaign was supposed to be closed.

"From the potpourri of inconsistencies this candidate for renemina-tion brought up the dignified, statesmanlike tidbit that the Republican party, the party that has written every law, formulated every statute, advanced every theory and carried out every single principle that has made this country the mystery of the ages, had not had a new idea for thirty years. Very well—they have caught one now—that any man who has been elected President of the United States, could make that speech and expect to be elected again."

SEVERAL INFANTRY CLASHES

(By United Press.)

Paris, Jan. 29.—Slight gains for the allies forced along the seacoast near Nieuport where infantry fight-

24 hours were reported in dispatches from the front today.

The French took a German posi-region south toward Ypres there were infantry clashes but the Germans evidently are awaiting the arrival of the reinforcements report-determined attack.
